"BOLSHEVIZE" PROTESTANT THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY IN BUDAPEST -- Munich, Hungaria, 27 Oct 50

Until recently, theological seminaries had been the only asylums of academic freedom. After their recent reorganization, however, the Protestant Theological Seminaries at Pecs and Debrecen were forced to drop scholars with an objective approach as well as actively religious professors from the faculty and replace them with instructors faithful to the party.

According to the plans of Dr Janos Victor, Budapest Reformed Protestant theological director, and undenominational theological seminary will be founded at Budapest, and the Reformed theological academies at Budapest, Papa, Sarospatak, and Debrecen, and the Evangelical and Baptist independent seminaries at Debrecen will be discontinued. Latin and Greek will not be listed as prerequisites at the new seminary, but doctor's degrees will be granted.
